

Terms of Participation in the BizTec Program

As a participant in the BizTec Program at the Technion, you are subject to all the rules, regulations, procedures, and instructions applicable to all students/graduate students/Alumni at the Technion, including those of the School of Graduate Studies and the Technion's Intellectual Property Regulations.

However, the unique nature of the BizTec program requires specific regulations to ensure a productive and successful experience for all participants. These specific regulations apply to all participants and serve as a condition for participation in the program. By joining the BizTec program and/or signing below, you hereby agree to abide by these regulations.

Collaboration and Teamwork: Participants are solely responsible for creating and managing their teams and collaborations. The program staff will have no responsibility and/or interfere with the formation, dissolution, or contributions of any team and will not take part (arbitrate and/or mitigate) any disputes on the matter.

External Mentors and Consultants: Mentors and business consultants contribute their time and expertise to the program voluntarily. The program staff will introduce participants to mentors/consultants, but the Technion and/or program staff bear no responsibility with regard to the any connection following the said introduction.

Investor Relations: The program staff may introduce participants to potential investors. The final decision with regard to any investment and/or investment terms rests solely with the investor and the participants. The Technion and/or the program staff bear no responsibility with regard to the any connection following the said introduction.

Third Party Service Providers: Participants may choose to use third party service providers for various services related to their projects. The program staff may provide recommendations for service providers. The final decision and responsibility for any relationship formed following the said recommendation rest solely with the participants. The Technion and/or program staff bear no responsibility with regard to the any connection following the said recommendation.

Intellectual Property: Please read carefully the Technion's Intellectual Property Regulations¹.

Confidentiality: Participants may be exposed to confidential information, ideas, trade secrets, and/or intellectual property of other participants during the program. Participants agree to maintain confidentiality with regard to the above, not to share, and not use the said information without, consent from the disclosing party, both during and after the program.

Name: _____ Date: _____ Signature: _____

¹ <https://graduate.technion.ac.il/wp-content/uploads/2016/10/Takanon.pdf>